That Tse-Ne-Gat. leader of the Piute Indians, who recently were quelled by Brig. Gen. Hugh Scott, is innocent of the charge of murder is the belief of the general, who thinks the evidence, which have been in circumstantial may have been he says is circumstaptial, may have been furnished by unfriendly Utes. The gen-eral impressed officials in that region with the fact that it should be made clear to the Indians that they can ex-pect considerate treatment at the hands
